

FIND NEW INSPIRATION BY ADDING STYLISH ANTIQUES AND COLLECTABLES TO YOUR HOME FROM ANTIQUES FOR EVERYONE'S SPRING FAIR
7TH – 10TH April 2016, NEC Birmingham

Art, antiques and collectables are a great way to make a home individual. What better place to find them than at Antiques for Everyone, the largest art, antiques and interiors fair in the UK, taking place at the NEC in Birmingham, from the 7-10 April. It features more than 230 specialist dealers offering a huge variety of desirable, rare and quirky items at prices from £10 to £100,000. Mixing antique and modern is one of today's hottest interior design trends. The designer Fabien Gueret from Warret & Jullion loves Art Deco in all its forms: furniture, lighting and Art, "it brings glamour, rhythm and a clear sense of grandeur." You can find examples of Art Deco at the fair along with a whole host of other styles, including British, Oriental and Eastern art.

Collecting is a passion that can enrich your life, which is why so many collectors, trade buyers and enthusiasts make a point of visiting the fair as they know they will find splendid examples of pottery, porcelain and glass as well as rare and decorative antiques, fine art and objets d'art. All pieces brought to the show are vetted by a team of experts so visitors to the fair can buy with confidence. Mary Claire Boyd, the Fair's Director says: "We are always seeking out new exhibits and new stories to excite visitors to the fair and to inspire them with new ideas. The addition of contemporary pieces and 20th century specialists ensure that the fair reflects the latest trends."

Judith Miller and Will Farmer, the BBC Antiques Roadshow experts will be sharing their top tips on what's hot and getting started in collecting. Details of the Spring Fair special feature exhibition is yet to be confirmed. For more information visit www.antiquesforeveryone.co.uk
