Discover a treasure trove of art, antiques and collectables at the Antiques for Everyone Summer Fair

21 – 24 July 2016 NEC Birmingham

Now in its 31st year, Antiques for Everyone offers what is undoubtedly the largest collection of quality, vetted art and antiques outside of London, taking place at the NEC in Birmingham from the 21– 24 July.

Artistry and real craftsmanship are the hallmarks that characterise all the exhibits at Antiques for Everyone Summer Fair; integrate these treasures into your own home and surround yourself with beautiful things. Everything at the fair is vetted by a team of experts so visitors can buy with confidence.

Philippa Devas Interior Designer: “I often use an item of antique furniture, a carpet or a standout antique object as a starting point, drawing on its colour scheme, material and design to inspire and inform the overall interior.” Period, vintage and modern treasures abound at Antiques for Everyone and are a fabulous way to up-date your home.

Whether you are looking for jewellery, glass and metalwork or furniture, paintings and objets d’art – it’s all here and much, much more! With over 200 specialist dealers attending, the fair appeals to everyone from collectors to trade buyers and enthusiasts. Prices start from easily affordable £10 up to £100,000.

“We are justly proud of the amazing diversity of antiques and art on sale at the fair. There is always something new to discover.” Says Mary Claire Boyd, the Fair’s Director. “

Celebrity speakers: Judith Miller and Will Farmer, the BBC Antiques Roadshow experts will be sharing their top tips on what’s hot and getting started in collecting. For more information visit www.antiquesforeveryone.co.uk
